

HEAD OF DEPARTMENT - IS THIS YOU?

ATMS has been undertaking a significant review of its activities and looking for opportunities to improve the services it provides to members. As part of the review process, the ATMS has reviewed the role of its Heads of Departments, especially in relation to professional practitioner education and media activities. The outcome of this review is that roles have been significantly expanded and each department head will in future be an important, integral member of the ATMS management team.

As Head of Department for Australia's largest professional practitioner association you will hold a prestigious position within the Australian Natural Medicine Profession. To fulfil this role you will need to be an outstanding practitioner with specialist knowledge in your discipline.

Vacancies have now arisen for the positions of Head of Naturopathy and Head of Western Herbal Medicine.

Should you fit the criteria for the position as set out in the attached Terms of Reference for Head of Department, and have the drive and energy to give to your professional association and the wider profession generally, please email an application setting out what you can bring to the position and the Profession, as well as your CV, to:

Matthew Boylan
Company Secretary ATMS
